Moved, "That, in the opinion of this House, the course pursued by Her Majesty's Government with respect to the rising in the Transvaal, so far as it has yet been explained to Parliament, has resulted in the loss of valuable lives without vindicating the authority of the Crown, is fraught with danger to the future tranquillity and safety of Her Majesty's dominions in South Africa, and fails to provide for the fulfilment of the obligations contracted by this Country towards the European settlers and native population of the Transvaal" (Sir Michael Hicks-Beach) July 25, 1756

Amendt. to leave out from "That," and add "this House, believing that the continuance of the War with the Transvaal Boers would not have advanced the honour or the interests of this Country, approves the steps taken by Her Majesty's Government to bring about a peaceful settlement, and feels confident that every care will be taken to guard the interests of the natives, to provide for the full liberty and equal treatment of the entire white population, and to promote harmony and good will among the various races in South Africa" (Mr. Rathbone) v.: Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after long debate, Question put; A. 205, N. 314; M. 109

Army—Army Accoutrements

Amendt. on Committee of Supply Mar 17, To leave out from "That," and add "the present conspicuous and tight-fitting dress and accoutrements of the British Army places it at a serious disadvantage when opposed to troops armed with weapons of accuracy, and causes the unnecessary loss of many valuable lives" (Colonel Barne) v., [259] 1252; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Amendt. withdrawn

Army Desertions—"Waste of the Army"

Amendt. on Committee of Supply Aug 4, To leave out from "That," and add "in order to meet the requirements of modern warfare, and to secure rapidity of movement for troops armed with breech-loading rifles, some provision be made in this year's Army Estimates for the formation of corps of mounted infantry, and that a proportion of such corps form part of the Army establishment in future" (Sir Robert Loyd Lindsay) v., [264] 853; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Question put, and agreed to

Army Organization—Retirement of Officers

Observations, Mr. Childers June 24, [262] 1228

Amendt. on Committee of Supply, To leave out from "That," and add "in the opinion of this House, it is not desirable to carry into effect that part of the new Army scheme, recently laid upon the Table, which authorises the compulsory retirement of efficient officers under 70 years of age, but that increased inducements to voluntary retirement should be substituted therefor, according to the original plan laid down by Lord Cardwell, and sanctioned by Parliament in 1871" (Sir Alexander Gordon) v.; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after debate, Amendt. and Motion withdrawn [See Miscellaneous Questions]

Army Organization—Territorial Titles of Regiments

Moved, "That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty praying that Her Majesty will be graciously pleased to cause a re-consideration of the proposal to efface the present numerical and other distinctions in regiments of the line and militia by the substitution of novel (so-called) 'territorial' titles, inasmuch as this proposed substitution is known to be viewed as subversive of esprit de corps, and is in consequence most distasteful to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates generally, whilst it has not the advantage of increasing the Army by a single additional trained or untrained soldier; the proposed re-organization being

Moved, That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying that Her Majesty will be pleased to appoint a Royal Commission to inquire into the constitution and working of the Ecclesiastical Courts, as created or modified under the Reformation Statutes of the 24th and 25th years of King Henry the Eighth and any subsequent Acts (The Lord Archbishop of Canterbury) Mar 7, [259] 378

P. T. Dale and the Rev. R. W. Enraght before the High Court of Judicature, the judges, after giving careful consideration, unanimously declared that the 'Court under the Public Worship Act was the same which had existed from the time of Lord Coke downwards, and was neither a new court nor had any new jurisdiction,' it is the opinion of this House that it is not desirable that an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty as proposed" (The Lord Oranmore and Browne); after debate, Question, That the words, &c. put; resolved in the affirmative

Amendt. on Committee of Supply July 28, To leave out from "That," and add "the future lists of unclaimed money be issued with cross references triennially; stating the amount of fund of the suitors' fund in Chancery; with the names and last known addresses of persons supposed to be entitled thereto; together with the date of the last decree" (Mr. Stanley Leighton) v., [264] 71; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Question put, and agreed to

Law and Justice—Outrage upon the Person—Inadequate Sentences

Amendt. on Committee of Supply Aug 5, To leave out from "That," and add "the administration of the Law in cases of outrage upon the person has long been a reproach to our Criminal Courts; that outrages and assaults of the most brutal character, especially upon married women, even when they cause a cruel death, are commonly punished less severely than small offences against property; that the admission of the crime of drunkenness as an extenuation of other crimes is immoral, and acts as an incentive to persons about to commit outrages to wilfully deprive themselves of the guidance of reason" (Mr. Macfarlane) v., [264] 1000; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Question put, and agreed to

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. H. B. W. BRAND), Cambridgeshire

A Member cannot call in question a Vote of the House, [257] 1353, 1358

Authority of Mr. Speaker—Mr. Sullivan—In that case I rise to move that this House do disagree with Mr. Speaker in that ruling. Mr. Speaker: In taking that course the hon. Member will be disregarding the authority of the Chair, and I must caution the hon. Member that the course he proposes to take will involve him in the consequences of that proceeding, [258] 9, 10, 12, 24

The Queen's Recommendation—Motion for a Monument to the Earl of Beaconsfield—Sir Wilfrid Lawson: Sir, it is stated in the Journals that the Queen's Recommendation of that Motion has been signified. It is, I believe, a Rule of this House that when the Sovereign is pleased to make a Recommendation, such Recommendation is signified by a Minister of the Crown. I desire to ask you, Sir, whether Her Majesty's Recommendation has been duly signified to this House; and, if so, when it was so signified? Mr. Speaker: Her Majesty's Recommendation was, upon the occasion referred to, duly signified to this House by a Privy Councillor in this House. If I remember rightly, that Privy Councillor was Lord Richard Grosvenor, [260] 1665

SEATS OF MEMBERS IN THIS HOUSE

The rule which governs this matter is that a Member who has been at Prayers shall place his card over the seat he then occupied. The Member is then fully entitled to occupy that place during the evening, [259] 1936

SITTING AND ADJOURNMENT OF THE HOUSE

Public Business—Meeting of the House—The House fixes the hour at which it will sit. If no particular hour is specified at which the House will meet on a given day, the House will sit at the usual time, [260] 2048, 2053

Business of the House—Mr. Gladstone having moved a Resolution that the Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Bill and the Peace Preservation (Ireland) Bill have precedence of all Orders of the Day, &c. until further notice—objection taken to the terms of the Resolution—which Mr. Speaker ruled to be in Order, [257] 1314

Motions for Adjournment—The only Question on which the judgment of the House can be taken on the Motion for Adjournment is whether the House should or should not adjourn, [263] 1619

Moving the Adjournment of the House at Question time—Mr. Speaker again expresses to the House the great inconvenience of the practice of an hon. Member, when dissatisfied with the Answer to his Question, moving the Adjournment of the House; and has often stated from the Chair his opinion that the House will be obliged to take steps to put an end to the abuse of the privilege, [257] 163; [260] 1257; [261] 550

Order—Moving the Adjournment of the House—Mr. Speaker: I must put it to the hon. Member (Mr. MacIver) that he is now abusing the Privileges of the Motion for the adjournment of the House. If he moves the adjournment of the House for the purpose of asking me whether the hon. Member for Oldham had a certain conversation with me, he is committing a gross abuse of his Privilege, [263] 51

Morning Sittings—Only Orders of the Day are usually taken at a Morning Sitting; but according to the decision of the House, arrived at not long ago, the difficulty might be got over by a Motion being introduced on the preceding evening, and then made an Order of the Day for the following day, [261] 981

The Derby Day—The Motion for the adjournment of the House over the Derby Day, whether made by a Minister or by another Member, had, according to custom, always had precedence, [261] 1335, 1460, 1789

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Objection taken that it was contrary to the usual practice, in the case of measures of importance, that the second reading should be taken so soon (three hours) after the Bill (the Peace Preservation (Ireland) Bill) had been in the hands of Members—Mr. Speaker said it was quite out of the question that he should interpose, as the House itself had ordered it to be set down for second reading that day, [259] 3

Motions and Questions, &c.

Amendments to Questions—The powers of the House in regard to Amendments are much greater than those of the Committee, [263] 1935

The Appropriation Bill—Mr. Speaker: As the House is aware, Amendments on the different stages of the Appropriation Bill are governed by the same rule as is applicable to other Bills. They must be relevant to the Bill, or some part of it, instead of having the same latitude as is given to Motions for going into Supply. As the Amendment stands, as far as I can judge, it has no relevance to the Appropriation Bill before the House, [265] 736

Mr. O'Sullivan: I will move, if I am in Order, the Amendment which stands in the name of the hon. Member for Cork. Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member will not be in Order in so doing. If the hon. Member declines to move the Amendment of which he has himself given Notice, it is not for me to force him to do so; but I am bound to say that, having addressed the House on the understanding that he would move that Amendment, if he does not he is acting disrespectfully to the House, [257] 1321; [265] 168, 169

Amendments—An Amendment being before the House, another Amendment cannot be moved until the first has been disposed of, [260] 524

Amended Motions—The hon. and gallant Member (Major Nolan) can, with leave of the House, withdraw the whole of his Motion, and bring it up again in an amended form. If the Amendment and the Motion were both withdrawn, the Resolution could be brought up in the form proposed, [257] 1040; [263] 1366

Amendments—Supply—An Amendment to the Motion for going into Committee of Supply having been moved and negatived, no further Amendment can be put, [260] 1477

Amendments — Committee of Supply and of Ways and Means—An Amendment, of which Notice had been given on going into Committee of Supply, cannot be moved on going into Committee of Ways and Means, [261] 475, 476

Amendments—A proposed Amendment having been ruled out of Order, a colourable alteration will not make it in Order, [257] 1328

PRIVILEGE

Parliamentary Oath (Mr. Bradlaugh) — For the proceedings in this matter see title Parliament — Parliamentary Oath (Mr. Bradlaugh)

263] 45

Mr. Speaker calls attention to the Resolution passed by the House on the 10th May. The House resolves, That this House approves the action of Mr. Speaker and of the Officers of this House acting under his orders, [264] 696, 704, 720

Mr. Speaker states that the Resolution of the 10th May is not a Standing Order, and would terminate at the end of the Session, [264] 1208

The uniform practice is to deal with Questions of Privilege at once, [258] 514

New Writs—The Motion for issuing a New Writ for the Borough of Northampton would, as a Question of Privilege, have precedence of all other Motions on that day, [259] 827

A Member having moved for a Writ is entitled to speak to the Motion he has proposed, [260] 479

Parliamentary Oath (Mr. Bradlaugh)—Question arising whether the subject of Mr. Bradlaugh and the Oath was a Question of Privilege, and, as such, required to be taken without delay—Mr. Speaker gave his opinion at length, that, under circumstances stated, this could not be said to be a Motion of that character which required the instant interposition of the House, or that it was of such a kind that it was entitled to have precedence as a Question of Privilege, [261] 431

New Writs—Mr. A. O'Connor, proposing to move for the issue of a New Writ for the Borough of Wigan on the following Saturday, it was objected that he could not do so without Notice. Mr. Speaker: In the case of a vacancy for a seat in this House it is a matter of Privilege; and is always taken as a matter of Privilege, unless otherwise ordered by the House; and it would be open even now for the hon. Member to move that a New Writ be issued for the Borough of Wigan, [265] 886

Parliamentary Oath—Mr. Thomas Collins, returned for Knaresborough, having presented himself at the Table and taken the Oath—Debate arising—Mr. Speaker pointed out the difference between this case and that of the hon. Member for Northampton (Mr. Bradlaugh), [261] 940

Right of Petition—Mr. O'Donnell asked the opinion of Mr. Speaker as to a Motion he proposed to make on a point of Privilege. A Minute had been recently issued by the Treasury affecting the telegraphists and postal clerks, which, he said, violated the fundamental privilege of the House to be approached by all classes of Her Majesty's subjects when petitioning for the redress of grievances

Mr. Speaker said: Should the hon. Member think fit, upon Constitutional or other grounds, to bring that Minute under the Notice of the House, it will be open to him to do so in the usual manner; but there are no grounds whatever for giving precedence to a Motion of that character as a question of Privilege, [262] 1036, 1037

Mr. Dillon's Arrest—Mr. Speaker: I have no hesitation in saying that any Motion bearing on Mr. Dillon's arrest, seeing that he has been for some time in prison, and that Urgency does not apply, could not, according to the practice of the House, be treated as a question of Privilege, [261] 694, 1785

Attention having been drawn to a letter of Mr. P. Egan, Treasurer of the Land League, reflecting, in very gross terms, on the conduct and motives of hon. Members of this House, Moved, "That the letter be read by the Clerk at the Table, and that it is a gross breach of the Privileges of this House"—objected to. Mr. Speaker said: This is the ordinary course. The first step to be taken is that the statement complained of should be read by the Clerk of the House, [261] 1666

OPPOSED BUSINESS

Rule 97A—The Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule—Motion made, and Question proposed, "That the Local Courts of Bankruptcy (Ireland) Bill be now read a second time;" after debate, Question arising (it being then 1.30 A.M.), Major Nolan: The first time a Bill is put down for Second Reading, is it not competent for an hon. Member to block it? Mr. Speaker: This is an Order of the Day; there is no Notice of opposition on the Paper; therefore the right hon. and learned Gentleman (the Attorney General for Ireland) can go on, [260] 2048; [261] 36, 662

Newspapers (Law of Libel) Bill considered in Committee—Colonel Makins asked whether this Bill did not come under the operation of the Half-past Twelve Rule, as there were

Amendments? Mr. Speaker said: The Rule does not apply to Amendments when they are only Amendments in Committee, [261] 503

A Bill (the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Bill) having been read a second time after 12.30, Mr. Anderson moved, "That the Bill be committed to a Select Committee." Mr. Speaker held that the Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule did not operate to block proceeding with that Motion, [257] 712, 713

No Notice is necessary in the case of a Motion of this kind, [261] 667

Mr. Monk having given Notice that he intended to ask the decision of the House on the Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule when the Orders of the Day were disposed of; and notice being taken that there were four Amendments to the Resolution, Mr. Speaker held that by this the Motion itself came within the Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule, [260] 1839

Money Bills—As the hon. Member (Mr. Rylands) is aware, the Resolution with regard to Opposed Business does not apply to Money Bills; and therefore does not apply in this instance (Public Loans (Ireland) Remission Bill), [263] 1592

Application of the Rule to the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors on Sunday Bill, [257] 273, 274; to Motion for a Standing Committee, 275; and to several Bills, 548, 549, 550, 712, 807

QUESTIONS

Alteration of Practice—The House having, by its own action, called on Members having Questions on the Paper not to read those Questions, has saved a considerable time in that process. No doubt, if the House thought proper to go still further, and require that Notices of Questions shall not be put at full length, but brought to the Table, a still further saving of time might take place, [262] 1966

The Speaker is bound to answer all Questions on points of Order that may be put to him as they arise; but I must respectfully observe that the Question that the hon. Baronet (Sir Wilfrid Lawson) now puts to me is one which relates to a matter which is for the determination of the House itself, [264] 852

Hypothetical Questions—The hon. Member (Mr. Healy) is putting an hypothetical Question, and I am bound to say that if the House is to allow hypothetical Questions to be put, there would be no end to them, [263] 849

Irregular Questions, [265] 356, 357, 365

A Question referring to a previous debate is altogether irregular, [257] 1746

A Question irregular in its form must be amended, and placed upon the Notice Paper in its amended form, [257] 724

A Question containing an attack upon an individual is quite irregular, [263] 1012

If the terms of the Question put by the the hon. Member (Mr. Tottenham) are precisely those which he read before [and which had been ruled out of Order], I do think it would be an irregularity on the part of the hon. Member, [262] 20

[cont

Alteration of Questions—Notice having been given of a Question which contained matter of argument, the words were struck out by Mr. Speaker's order. Mr. Sheridan, however, proceeding to read the Question as originally brought to the Table, Mr. Speaker refused to allow the Question to be so put, [265] 880

Alteration of Questions, [262] 112; [263] 1130, 1131

Mr. Speaker declines to Answer a Question with reference to the construction of an Act of Parliament, [260] 1531

Questions to Members not being Ministers of the Crown—The Rule of the House is that no Question shall be put to any Member of the House, other than a Minister of the Crown, unless the Question relates to some Bill or Motion before the House. At the same time, as the present Question related to the proceedings of an important public school (Westminster College) established by Act of Parliament, it appeared to Mr. Speaker that it would not be proper for him to interpose between the hon. Member proposing to put the Question and the House, [261] 32, 1320

To ask a Question of a private Member relative to a Bill not regularly before the House would be highly irregular; and the irregularity would not be cured by moving the adjournment of the House, [260] 1256; [261] 550

Mr. Warton desired to know from Mr. Speaker whether the Question (of Major Nolan) could be put to him, as it did not refer to any Bill or Motion of which he had charge; or, if put, whether he was bound to answer it? Mr. Speaker: The Question is quite in Order. It is within the discretion of the hon. and learned Member to answer it or not as he pleases, [262] 469, 470

Limitation of Questions, [257] 651, 1102; [258] 1530

Argumentative Questions—A Question containing matter of an argumentative character is out of Order, [259] 1825

Explanation—If an hon. Member desire to correct any statement in the current Debate, it is open to him to address himself to the House, with a view of correcting any misstatement that may have been made, [257] 1746

Personal Explanation—When the Question has been answered, the hon. Member (Mr. R. H. Paget) would be at liberty to make any personal explanation if he was not satisfied with the answer, [259] 1818

Limitation of Explanatory Statement—An hon. Member, putting a Question, is not entitled to enter into any extraneous matters excepting so far as may be necessary for making his Question plain. He may read extracts from a written document, if the extracts are necessary to make the Question clear, [257] 644; [260] 468, 469

Observations which involve matter which might lead to debate can scarcely be regarded

as coming within the proper limits of a Question, [261] 959

The hon. Member is not now putting a Question to any Minister of the Crown, but he is entering into a matter of argument and debate, and he is therefore out of Order, [260] 1256; [263] 855

It would not be regular to debate the form of a Question, [261] 807

Limitation of Answer—Mr. T. P. O'Connor giving Notice of a Question relative to the interference of certain Magistrates with Land League Meetings, the Chief Secretary for Ireland intimated that he could not answer that Question, as Questions of that kind had a tendency to give a clue to the identity of individuals. Mr. O'Connor persevering, Mr. Speaker said the hon. Gentleman was out of Order, [257] 643

Latitude in Answer—It is customary to allow considerable latitude in answering Questions to a Member having charge of a Bill, [264] 1408

Question upon Answer—A Member is entitled to put a Question to the Minister bearing upon the Question which he has already asked; but he cannot enter into a debate, [261] 410, 1205

A Question having been put and fully answered, it is quite out of Order for the hon. Member (Mr. Dawson) to continue the subject, [257] 1098, 1201

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE (URGENCY)

Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Bill—At half-past Nine on the morning of Wednesday, Feb 2, after a protracted Sitting of 41½ hours, Mr. Speaker rose and said, that a crisis had then arisen which demanded the prompt interposition of the Chair and of the House, and declined to call upon any more Members to speak, and proceeded at once to put the Question from the Chair, [257] 2034

In closing the debate on the Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Bill on the morning of Feb 2 Mr. Speaker acted on his own responsibility, and from a sense of duty to the House, [258] 8

A Resolution reflecting on this action of Mr. Speaker relates, not to a question of Privilege, but to a question of Order, [258] 8, 9, 14

Resolutions (Mr. Gladstone) Feb 3—Mr. Speaker expresses his sense of the confidence reposed in him by the House at a time of unexampled emergency, and states his intention to lay before the House certain Rules for the regulation of its Business, while the state of Public Business continues to be urgent; and submits a Rule restricting Motions for Adjournment, [258] 162

Mr. Speaker lays on the Table the Rules framed for the regulation of the Business of the House while the state of Public Business is urgent Feb 9, [258] 435

Additional Rules Feb 17, [258] 1070

Additional Rule in lieu of Rules of Feb 17, [259] 18

Additional Rules Mar 11, [259] 888

Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Bill—In answer to Questions Mr. Speaker said, that Amendments which had not been reached at the time the Committee stage was concluded might be submitted to the House on the Consideration of the Bill; if there was no Report, then by a Motion to re-commit the Bill, [258] 1092, 1093

Under New Rule No. 14 a Member who moves an Amendment is in exactly the same position as the Member in charge of the Bill, [258] 1091

The Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Bill having passed, Mr. Speaker declares that the state of Public Business is no longer urgent, [258] 1841

Committee of Supply—The Rules relating to Urgency would not relate to Committee of Supply, unless the House were to vote Supply to be urgent, [258] 1872

If the House agree to a Resolution of Urgency, the urgency would only apply so long as the matter declared by a Minister of the Crown to be urgent was before the House, [258] 1960, 1962

The power to frame Rules for Urgency in Committee of Supply before Supply has been voted to be urgent was, no doubt, conferred upon Mr. Speaker by the Resolution passed by the House in February last, [259] 825

Divisions—Mr. Speaker states the object of the new Rule was that the House should be saved the trouble of a division in the event of only a small minority supporting a particular view. If the bell were rung (as is the usual practice), and Members were summoned to their places, that object would be defeated, [258] 1746, 1749, 1750, 1752

Orders of the Day—I apprehend that the qualification in those words of the Resolution, "until the House shall otherwise order," clearly leaves it with the House, if it thinks proper, to postpone the Motion of the Chief Secretary to a future day. But it is my duty, until the House has thought proper to set aside altogether, or to discharge, the Order of the 25th January, to place the Motion at the head of the list for consideration each day until the Motion is disposed of, [258] 1744

Postponement of Motion—A Motion is not in the same category with an Order of the Day. In regard to an Order of the Day, any hon. Member can move it; but in the case of a Motion the House cannot compel an hon. Member who gives Notice of it to proceed with it; but he can postpone it if he chooses, [258] 1753, 1754

Peace Preservation (Ireland) Bill—Committee—The Chairman of Committees having put the Question, "That I do report this Bill, as amended, to the House:" objected that the Rule as to Urgency did not apply to this Question. Mr. Speaker, having resumed the Chair, declared that the Rule did apply, for that the spirit and intention of the Rule, no doubt, were that after a certain hour there should be no further debate, [259] 696

Mr. Speaker proceeds, under the Rule of Urgency, to deal with the several clauses and Amendments on the Notice Paper, [259] 762

Mr. Speaker states that the House having passed the Peace Preservation (Ireland) Bill, it becomes his duty to declare that the state of Public Business is no longer urgent, [259] 890

Public Business (Urgency)—The Estimates—The Prime Minister having moved, "That the state of Public Business is urgent"—after debate, the House divided; Ayes 296, Noes 212. Mr. Speaker: The Question not having been affirmed by a majority of three to one, as required by the Resolution of the 3rd February, I have to declare that the Question has not been resolved in the affirmative, [259] 926

RULES OF DEBATE

Addressing the Chair

A Member must address himself to the Chair and not to any Member of the House, [261] 1001, 1846, 847, 1852

Speaking twice

The hon. Member (Mr. Parnell) having already spoken to the Question before the House has exhausted his right of addressing the House, [257] 982

A Member who has moved an Amendment has exhausted his right to address the House, [258] 1907

A Member who has moved the Adjournment of the Debate is out of Order in seconding a subsequent Motion, [261] 1171

An hon. Member who has seconded the Motion for the Adjournment of the Debate is not entitled to speak again, [258] 2022; [262] 653

An hon. Member is not entitled to make a second speech in asking leave to withdraw his Motion, [263] 758

An Amendment to the Address having been moved by Mr. Dawson (Carlow), several hon. Members addressed the House for and against the Motion. Mr. Speaker having ruled that the Amendment was irregular in form and could not be put from the Chair, it was proposed to withdraw it and to substitute an amended Motion. Question, whether Members who had addressed the House on the first Motion would be entitled to speak on the amended Motion?—Mr. Speaker: I have no hesitation in saying that Members having already spoken to the informal Amendment will not be entitled to speak again on the formal Amendment, [257] 1041

Right of Reply—Capital Punishment (Abolition) Bill—Mr. J. W. Pease, after addressing the House in support, moved "That the Bill be now read a second time;" debate thereon. Mr. Pease rose to reply.—Mr. Speaker said, that as no Amendment had been moved the hon. Member was not entitled to make a second speech, [262] 1083

An hon. Member is not entitled to reply to an Answer given to a Question, [265] 822

Reference to previous Debates

The hon. Member is not entitled to refer to debates in this House which have taken place during the present Session, [262] 8, 1830

To quote what has been said in the other House of Parliament during the present Session is out of Order, [262] 1489

Mr. Speaker: I must point out to the House that the hon. Member (Mr. Parnell) is citing speeches made by the right hon. Gentleman (Mr. W. E. Forster) during the present Session. That, as the House knows, would be, strictly speaking, out of Order; but, as the hon. Member calls in question the administration of the Act, possibly the House will extend its indulgence to him, [265] 172

A Question referring to a past debate in this House is irregular, [257] 653, 1325, 1334, 1746; [258] 28, 39, 42; [261] 990

Latitude of Observation

Mr. Dawson (Carlow), in moving an Amendment to the Address respecting the Borough Franchise in Ireland, referred to a wide range of subjects—["Order!"]—Mr. Speaker said, that although the proceeding might be, in point of form, regular, he was bound to add, that if a similar course of action were pursued on the Motion for the Address by Members of this House generally taking an interest in any particular question, the Address to the Crown could hardly be carried within the compass of the Session, [257] 1004

Moving the Adjournment of the Debate—The Question before the House is, "That this House do now adjourn." I am bound to say that it is one of the many inconveniences of this proceeding that it gives the utmost latitude for discussion, and the observations now being made are not out of Order, [261] 999

Unparliamentary Language

Mr. O'Donnell—If I understood the right hon. Gentleman (Mr. W. E. Forster) rightly, then all I can say is that it is as base and abominable a calumny to be uttered against a Member of this House——. Mr. Speaker—The hon. Member for Dungarvan has spoken to a point of Order, and he has himself been guilty of disorder in imputing calumny to the right hon. Gentleman, [257] 230

The words "discreditable exhibition" if applied to any hon. Member would be out of Order, [257] 1429

Order—Unparliamentary Language, [257] 230, 231, 232

Language of Menace, [261] 1082

Mr. Speaker—If the interruption of the hon. Member for Wexford (Mr. O'Kelly) continues to be so frequent I must take notice of it, [265] 257

Disorderly Interruption—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member for Galway (Mr. T. P. O'Connor) having interrupted several times in a manner quite unusual, if he does so again I must warn him that he has disregarded the authority of the Chair, [261] 1250, 1257

On a Question of Privilege, a very confused debate arising—Mr. Speaker said: These interruptions on points of Order are themselves very disorderly. If I had heard any such expression ("That is not true") coming from the lips of the hon. Member (Mr. O'Connor Power) when he was addressing the House, I should have interposed, [261] 1694

Mr. Speaker: If the hon. Member (Mr. T. P. O'Connor) when he made use of the word "mendacious," applied it to a Member of the House, he is clearly out of Order, and I must ask him to withdraw this word. Mr. T. P. O'Connor withdrew the word. Whereupon—

Mr. O'Kelly: I want to know, Sir, whether there is any protection in this House for hon. Members on these benches against any Gentleman making statements which are calumnious and lying.

Mr. Speaker immediately Named Mr. O'Kelly [See Parliament], [262] 18, 19

An hon. Member is not entitled to say of any Member of the House that he does not believe a statement he has made, [261] 996

Mr. Parnell: Because it is a gross falsehood—Mr. Speaker: If the hon. Member has applied that observation to any Member of this House he is out of Order. If the hon. Member says that a statement made by another hon. Member is a gross falsehood I must call upon him to withdraw the expression, [257] 770

Mr. Callan: The hon. Member for Waterford (Mr. Blake) should not state that which he knew not to be correct. ["Order!"] Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member had, no doubt, made the statement hastily, and would see the necessity of withdrawing it, [261] 1028

Mr. Parnell—He thought the statement of the right hon. Gentleman (Mr. Gladstone) was hardly a credible one. ["Order!"] Mr. Speaker—The hon. Member will admit, I think, that an expression of that kind applied to a Member of this House is not Parliamentary, [264] 1991

Mr. Speaker names Mr. Parnell as having disregarded the authority of the Chair, after being cautioned for holding language utterly un-Parliamentary and improper. Proceedings thereon [see Parliament], [264] 390

Mr. Speaker: If the hon. Member (Dr. Commins) applies the expression "poltroon" to a Member of this House, I must call upon him to withdraw it, [259] 31

The Solicitor General for Ireland having spoken of certain officials being sometimes exposed to the insolent observations of hon. Gentlemen in that House,—Mr. Speaker said he thought the hon. and learned Gentleman would see the propriety of withdrawing that expression, [259] 47

Mr. Speaker: The right hon. Gentleman (Mr. Childers) was entitled to say that, in his opinion, the language of the hon. Gentleman (Mr. T. P. O'Connor) was un-Parliamentary, [263] 246

Un-Parliamentary Language (generally), [263] 1450

Members of the other House of Parliament. He has no right to speak of the Members of the other House of Parliament as the hereditary enemies of the Irish people, [264] 1560

Mr. Healy—The Home Secretary had stated that the doctrine of the Land League was a doctrine of assassination and treason. That statement was a deliberate untruth. Mr. Speaker—I cannot allow that expression to pass. It is un-Parliamentary, and the hon. Member must withdraw it. Mr. Healy would withdraw the expression, and say that the Home Secretary, in so describing the Land League, had stated what was distinctly untrue. Mr. Speaker: That is merely a repetition of the expression. I must call upon the hon. Member distinctly to withdraw it.

Mr. Healy continuing to disregard the authority of the Chair was "Named" by Mr. Speaker, and suspended from the service of the House during the remainder of the Sitting, [259] 166

Mr. Finigan having used the words "beastly bellowing," and being called to Order by the Chairman of Committees, withdrew the expression; Mr. O'Donnell, pursuing the subject, reported to Mr. Speaker as disregarding the authority of the Chair, and suspended Mar 8, [259] 602

His explanation accepted June 2, [261] 1984

Mr. Healy: He could tell the right hon. Gentleman (Mr. W. E. Forster) that if he continued to support the police in arbitrary acts, he would find that ten times more outrages would occur, those outrages being the only resource which those unfortunate people had against high-handed proceedings. Mr. Alderman Lawrence rose to Order. Mr. Speaker said: The course taken by the hon. Member for Wexford (Mr. Healy) is taken entirely on his own responsibility. I deplore the language I have heard this evening coming both from him and from the hon. Member for Dungarvan (Mr. O'Donnell).—State of Ireland, [261] 549

Lord Randolph Churchill: The House, perhaps without knowing it, had been a witness of a most carefully conceived and well got-up burlesque. The House must bear in mind that Mr. Bradlaugh and his Colleague in all these affairs acted under the inspiration of the Prime Minister and his Colleagues; and the course of events had been extremely well arranged with Mr. Bradlaugh after his expulsion from the House. [Cries of "Order" and "Withdraw"]

Mr. Speaker said, that if the words imputed to the noble Lord by the hon. and learned Member for Meath (Mr. A. M. Sullivan) were correctly imputed to him, they were quite out of Order, [261] 419

To charge hon. Members of this House with rebellion would, no doubt, be out of Order, [258] 285

Sir Henry Tyler: I wish to ask you, Sir, whether the hon. Member (Mr. Dillon) is in Order in telling us of the forces which he has at his command, and that the Land League reigns supreme in Tipperary? I wish to know whether he is not uttering traitorous and treasonable sentiments in boasting that he is upsetting the law of the land?

Mr. Speaker: If the hon. Member accepts the version given by the hon. Member who rose to Order, I am bound to say that the expressions he used were un-Parliamentary; but no Motion having been made to have the words taken down, I can only call the attention of the hon. Member for Tipperary to them, [257] 879 (and further discussion)

The hon. Member (Mr. Dillon) is exceeding the licence of Parliamentary language in advocating civil war, [259] 157

Unguarded Language—The language of the hon. Member (Mr. T. P. O'Connor) with reference to persons of high position and character (the Judges) is unguarded, to say the least of it; but I am not prepared to say that it is not within the bounds of Order, [263] 1216, 1218

Mr. Speaker states that animadversion on proceedings in the Courts of Law in matters now pending seem to him very improper—The State Trials in Dublin, [257] 449

Relevancy of Argument—The Question before the House is the second reading of the Irish Land Bill; and on the Motion for the adjournment of the debate no observations can be made by the hon. Member (Mr. Parnell) which are not relevant to that Bill, [260] 1617

The hon. Member (Mr. Parnell) having thereon proposed to move that the House do now adjourn, Mr. Speaker said, that until the Motion for the adjournment of the debate was disposed of, the Motion of the hon. Member could not be made, [260] 1617

A Member, in discussing Questions that are not before the House, is altogether out of Order. He is bound to confine himself to the Question immediately before the House, [257] 1362, 1365

Irregularity of Observations—On a Question respecting a clause in the Land Law (Ireland) Bill—debate arising—Mr. Speaker: I must point out to the House the great irregularity of this discussion. It is being attempted to review the course taken in Committee of this House on the Land Law (Ireland) Bill, [263] 863, 864

Repetition of Argument—The hon. Member (Mr. T. P. O'Connor) is repeating appeals to the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant in almost the same language as those which he has already addressed to the right hon. Gentleman in supporting the previous Amendment. I must caution the hon. Member that if he persists in that line of argument I shall have to call upon him to discontinue his speech, [258] 1620, 1623, 1627

Mr. Speaker: I must point out that the hon. Member (Mr. O'Donnell) is using precisely the same arguments over and over again, and that he is therefore trifling with the House, [264] 1615

Tediousness—Mr. Speaker said the hon. Member (Mr. Biggar) was treating the subject in a most tedious manner. In fact, he was almost trifling with the House, [259] 362

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Order and Procedure

Motions relating to the Order of Business of the House are almost invariably made by the Leader of the House on behalf of the House. I consider that in the absence of the Leader of the House it would be competent for any Minister of the Crown to make that Motion, [258] 1664

Whiteboy Acts Repeal Bill—Moved, "That the Second Reading of the Bill be deferred till Saturday." Mr. R. N. Fowler asked if it was not open to a Member to move to amend the Motion for postponement by substituting Monday for Saturday?—Mr. Speaker: Such a course has never been taken, to my knowledge, without Notice; but if the hon. Member thinks proper to move an Amendment the House will deal with it, [264] 1105

Thames River Bill—Motion made, and Question proposed, "That the Bill be read a second time on Tuesday the 15th of March." Lord R. Churchill moved an Amendment that the Order for the Second Reading be read and discharged.—Mr. Speaker said, it would be his duty to put the Amendment from the Chair; but he would point out to the noble Lord that the course he proposed to take without Notice was very unusual, [259] 315

The Chairman of Committees—Mr. O'Donnell having given Notice of Motion calling in question the conduct of the Chairman of Committees, which, however, had been indefinitely postponed—Mr. Anderson asked whether it was expedient or respectful to the House that such a Motion should remain on the Paper? Mr. Speaker said, the Motion was one of a nature that made it important to dispose of it as early as possible; but the responsibility of doing so rested entirely with the hon. Member who had given Notice of it, [259] 1252

Notices of Motion—An hon. Member who has given Notice of a Motion and is not in his place when Mr. Speaker calls his name must give another Notice, [257] 933

DIVISIONS

Pecuniary Interest—As the House is aware, any Member having a direct pecuniary interest in any matter before the House who gives a vote upon that matter is liable to have his vote disallowed. The rule does not preclude a Member from giving Notice of opposition to a Bill if he thinks proper to do so, [263] 1477

COMMITTEES

Instruction—It is open to an hon. Member to move an Instruction to the Committee on the nomination of the Committee, [260] 971

Mr. Speaker: An Instruction would not be regular or permissible if it proposed to authorize the Committee to do that which it already had the power to do. An Instruction would also be inadmissible if it involved a charge—according to the Standing Order such a proposition could only be introduced in a Committee of the Whole House, and upon the recommendation of a Minister of the Crown, [261] 1370

SELECT COMMITTEES

On Motion that a Select Committee be appointed, it is irregular to discuss the constitution of the Committee, [259] 534, 884

Notice—Colonel Alexander called attention to the manner in which the Select Committee on Customs (Outdoor Officers at the Outports) was nominated, and said he should oppose the nomination of Mr. H. H. Fowler (Wolverhampton), and move instead the name of Mr. Stewart (Greenock)

Mr. Speaker: The hon. and gallant Member is at liberty to oppose any name; but if he wishes to add another name, he cannot do so without Notice, [262] 222, 223

PUBLIC PETITIONS

According to the Rules and Orders of this House, a Petition can be presented to this House by a Member only, except a Petition from the Corporation of London, or the Corporation of Dublin, [263] 1011

A Petition referring to Mr. Bradlaugh having been forwarded to Baron Henry De Worms (Greenwich) for presentation, the hon. Member hesitated to do so on account of certain expressions contained in it. Mr. Labouchere inquired whether the Petition was so worded that a Member of the House was justified in exercising a discretion in presenting it or not?

Mr. Speaker said, he had stated to the hon. Member for Greenwich that on the construction he placed upon the Petition he was justified and warranted in declining to present it, [262] 860, 1111, 1112, 1114

PUBLIC BILLS

A Bill which has not been introduced is not formally before the House. The Chief Secretary for Ireland has asked leave to introduce a Bill; but it is not yet formally before the House, as no leave has yet been granted, [257] 1382

Summary of proposed enactments—Teinds (Scotland) Bill—Sir R. Assheton Cross: I wish to draw the attention of Mr. Speaker to the fact that at the head of the Bill, as circulated to hon. Members, there is a statement or a summary of the objects of the measure drawn upon the authority of those who have introduced it. I think such a practice is a dangerous one, and that if such a statement is to be drawn up at all it ought to be done by an entirely independent authority.—Mr. Speaker: I am bound to say that I think the practice referred to is one which is open to abuse. I feel the force of the observation made by the right hon. Gentleman that if a statement of this kind is desirable it should be drawn up by some independent authority, [260] 423

Amendments—The House having settled the provisions of the Bill with regard to the Prison Rules, no Amendment relating to the subject can now be entertained, [258] 1628

An Amendment involving a matter already decided by the House cannot be put, [258] 1673, 1674, 1675

Amendments—An Amendment inadmissible, inasmuch as it is not consistent with the provisions of the Bill dealing with the same subject which have been already passed, [258] 1597

Committee—New Clauses—The general rule of the House is quite clear. No clause can be moved except by the hon. Member who has given Notice of it, [259] 762

Notices of New Clauses are required, [258] 1344, 1533

Lords Amendments

Lords Amendts. to Land Law (Ireland) Bill—Sir Walter B. Barttelot asked whether it was competent for the Government to amend words which had been passed by this House and sent up to the Lords, and which the Lords rejected? Mr. Speaker said, in his opinion it was competent for the House to amend words restored to the Bill in consequence of the omission of certain words involved by the rejection of the Amendment by the Lords, [264] 1470

In answer to Mr. O'Sullivan, Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member could not move an Amendment in the Bill which had not been touched by the Lords, [264] 1497

An hon. Member would not be in Order in proposing an Amendment on the Amendment after the Question had been put from the Chair, "That the House do agree to the Lords Amendment, as amended, [264] 1959, 1974

Order for Consideration of Lords Amendments on the Land Law (Ireland) Bill—In answer to Mr. Macdonald, Mr. Speaker said: On the Order of the Day for the Consideration of these Amendments, the hon. Member, if he thinks proper, may move that the Amendments be considered three months hence; but I think it only right to inform him that if the Motion were carried it would involve the loss of the Land Bill, [264] 1931

Lords Amendments—A Bill having come down from the Lords with verbal Amendments, it is usual to consider such Amendments without giving Notice; but if the hon. and learned Member (Mr. Warton) presses his objection, the Amendments cannot be considered now, and the debate must be adjourned, [264] 1464

It is not open to move an Amendment on Question, "That the Bill do pass?" The practice has become obsolete, [258] 1832

Consideration on Report—I have to inform the right hon. Baronet (Sir Stafford Northcote) that the House does not deal with new Clauses on Report, [263] 1903

Bills relating to Money—Money Clauses—A new Clause involving a money charge upon the people cannot be proposed without the sanction of a Committee of the Whole House, [263] 1912, 1914, 2004

PRIVATE BILLS

Backing—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member (Baron H. De Worms) asks me whether it is out of Order for two official Members to place their names on the back of a Private Bill. I cannot say I think the practice a convenient practice; but as there are precedents for it I am not prepared to say it is out of Order, [260] 131

MISCELLANEOUS

An Irregularity—Instructions having been given to the Queen's printer to print and circulate the Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Bill, in anticipation that the Bill would be introduced and ordered to be printed on Friday night, but this not occurring, the Bill was nevertheless printed and circulated on Saturday morning, [257] 1743

The hon. Member (Mr. MacIver) appeals to me on a point of Order with reference to a matter which has occurred in the Lobby. I am bound to say I must decline to give an opinion upon occurrences in the Lobby, [263] 50

The Order of the Day for Supply having been read, Mr. Speaker called upon Mr. Childers to address the House; objected that the right hon. Gentleman in making his Ministerial Statement before going into Committee of Supply (Army Estimates) was not in Order. Mr. Speaker said: I conclude that the right hon. Gentleman is about to conclude with a Motion, and I shall not interpose to prevent his making any observations he may think proper before doing so, [259] 189

Reference to Members by Name—The Chief Secretary for Ireland having spoken of the hon. Member for Tipperary as "Mr. Dillon," Mr. Healy objected that it was the usual courtesy of the House that a Member should be mentioned by his constituency and not by name. Mr. Speaker said the right hon. Gentleman had not, in his opinion, taken any course opposed to Order. Hon. Members were aware that there were two Members for Tipperary, and it was necessary to distinguish between them, [261] 23

Mr. Cowen having stated that there were certainly 40 Members who were anxious to address the House on the Land Law (Ireland) Bill, asked, Whether it would not be possible for the Speaker and the Representatives of the different Parties in the House to make an informal ballot of the names of the hon. Members who wished to address the House? Mr. Speaker said: I am always most anxious to promote the convenience of Members of this House; but the hon. Member is imposing a task upon me which is beyond my powers, [261] 288

Order of the House cancelled—Mr. Speaker said that the Motion for the Return (relating to Grants and Supplies to the Ameers of Cabul) had been put from the Chair and agreed to on the understanding that it was an unopposed Return. Being now opposed by the noble Marquess (the Secretary of State for India) it must be cancelled by his (Mr. Speaker's) authority, [265] 609

Sunday Opening of National Museums and Galleries

Moved to resolve, "That inasmuch as all opposition to the action of Her Majesty's Government in opening on Sundays the National Museums and Galleries in the suburban districts of London and in Dublin has entirely ceased owing to the good results which have followed such opening, this House is of opinion that the time has now arrived for extending this action to all institutions of a like character, it having been most conclusively shown that large numbers of the people rejoice at every opportunity that is afforded them of spending Sunday intelligently, and with due regard for its preservation as a day of rest and cessation
